

Upward and Onward Productions Performance & Audition Coaching Instructions

Upward and Onward Productions LLC is an up-and-coming production company with a talent pool with various companies, institutions and groups. This includes Broadway & Off-Broadway, regional and international theater, and various cruise ship companies.

Upward and Onward Productions's artistic development and relations team of creative, artistic, casting and music directors; educators, and coaches deliver a large variety of training in acting, singing, musicianship and performance skills. Our production team believes that the artist comes first and understands what the artist needs because we are artists as well. Our artistic development and relations team are experienced performers with years of artistry – writing, producing, arranging, composing, and singing on stage and in the studio and class. We zone in on the client's craft to better lead him/ her to be able to use the tools they have and obtain new knowledge to complement his/ her training and skills – focusing on delivery, response, execution, timing, style, etc...

We offer the following development/ audition services to our clients:

- Warm-up Techniques
- Audition Preparation
- Song Breakdown
- Song and Script Approach
- Acting Beats and Transitions
- Monologue and Scene Study
- Character Analysis
- Stylistic Singing
- Audition/ Performance Book Organization (build set list)
- Audition Performance
- On-camera Training

To ensure a quality session for our clients, please bring/ provide all material you deem necessary to review for your audition, training and/ or coaching for a character/ part of a play, musical or performance (ie. Music book/ score, plays/ scripts, scenario, character description, etc.).

**If it is required, all of these items listed above need to be compiled in a shared Dropbox file, some emailed and some links shared from video links/ music links.****

Prices are a negotiable rate based on the product requested. Once the artistic development and relations team has a breakdown of services needed and fully reviewed your new project request, an estimate will be provided.
